Now then...
This beautiful yet dangerous demon invites you into a mansion where demons live...

It's been such a long while since I was last here.
Even the interior of this shed has become so run down.
sfx grind creak
When I heard that it was a dwelling for demons, I started to wonder what it'd be like.
I didn't expect it to resemble the mansions humans build for themselves.
It's been fifty years since this was last used.
sfx knuckle click
Is that a... long sword?

*sfx: pushu~ (thrown)
Take that with you.
It is something my Kagamaru will need.
...This ...doesn't mean that I've agreed to team up with a demon like you.
I'll only be travelling with you until I get to return the favour for saving my life.
There are still people that have to pay for what they did to me.
My, my. You're such a stubborn youngster.
Well, that's fine with me though.
*sfx: kokoro~ kokoro~ (bubble bubble)
After all, that which governs this world is "to do as much as possible of what you can do."

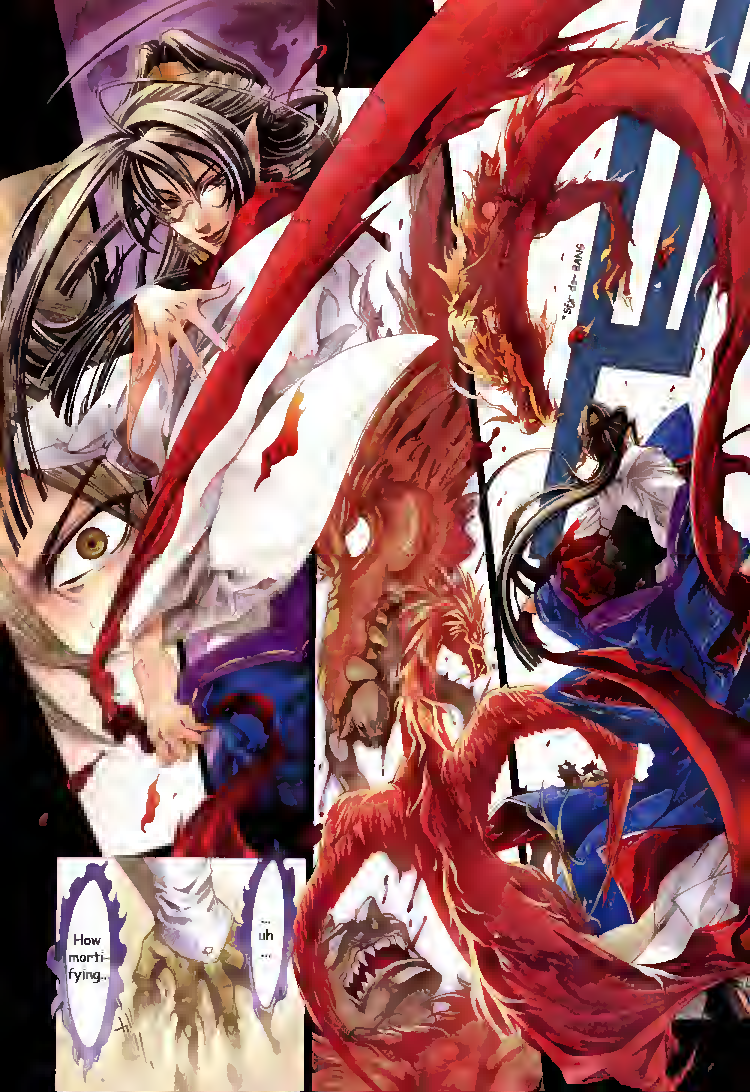
Where have you hidden yourself for the last 50 years,
Now that I have met you here, this will be your time to die! Today, I will rid this world of all your misdeeds!
"sfx: zarov accumulates"
"sfx: baker bursts"

You had better not.
sfx: shuriu~ crackle
Have you forgotten where you stand?
A demon?
Dear me.
After fifty years apart, you have all grown senile, my weak little demon bunch.
You are all just food for me!



SHA-ZAN
How mortifying..
...uh...

How mortifying...!
Half of the blood which flows through you is without a doubt the blood of our kind
*sfx: zuru~ steams
The depth of your sin!
*sfx: shuuuu~ Hssss
sfx: zuw suck
!?
*sfx: swy-shaa~ sfx: zuuuw pulls
That long sword is...!
Stay back!

Uh ...!
Damn it!
Not again ..!
You're such an impotent one
You tried using the sword before I even had the chance to explain to you how it should be used Never mind what's done's done.
I'll just have to explain it to you now
along with the details of your job...
but first...
I'm hungry.
... Damn it.
